By placing the order the applicant accepts the conditions of business of the auction house. The goods will not be delivered before they are paid. In case the applicant is unknown to us in person the application will only be effected if a check or money in cash in an adequate amount* is attached (serving as a security for the bids). Without taking advantage of the written offers the acceptance of a bid will be carried out to the lowest possible price. Lots without a price limit will be awarded for the highest written, oral or telephone bid we received.

Please do only bid if you acknowledge and accept our conditions of business.

Offers under the reserve price cannot be considered.

Attention: Do not forget the signature!

On top of the winning bid we charge a commission of 19 % + 19 % sales tax (22,61 % in total).

* A deposit of 20 % total of your bids has to be made.

If you do not win any lot you will immediately get back your deposit. Please note that there is an additional 15 EUR fee for cash letters/checks.

Pour nos clients étrangers: Vos ordres seront effectués après la réception d'un acompte de 20% du prix plancher.

Please examine your written bids carefully, since we can not accept complaints that are caused by wrong lot numbers.

Offers per letter or fax need to come in at the latest Wednesday before the auction. We can not guarantee consideration and correct recordation of bids that arrive after the due-date. There are 4 lines for telephone bidders that are reserved in order of the incoming applications. The requests for telephone bidding also have to come in not later than Wednesday. We reserve the right to disregard requests that arrive during the auction days. Offers that come in after the auction can only be considered for the sale of the non-sold items.
